Research Paper (Peer-Reviewed)

The following research papers exemplify my commitment to advancing legal scholarship and practice, with a focus on integrating detailed analysis of local practices with global standards.

A. Arbitration law:

1. Alhasan, T. K. (2025). Arbitral secretaries and the validity of awards: A doctrinal and case law-based evaluation of challenges based on undisclosed assistance. Arbitration International (advance online publication).

Analyzes the evolving role of arbitral secretaries through doctrinal, case law, and institutional frameworks, proposing a 'disclosure–impact–consent' standard to safeguard due process and award validity.

2. Alhasan, T. K. (2025). Blockchain-Enhanced Construction Records: Transforming Evidentiary Standards and Dispute Resolution in International Arbitration. Journal of Legal Affairs and Dispute Resolution in Engineering and Construction (advance online publication).

Shows permissioned blockchains embed immutability and authentication in project records, strengthening arbitral evidence; analysis and pilots confirm admissibility, automated compliance, cost reductions, and jurisprudential shift.

3. Alhasan, T. K. (2025). Arbitration in the era of trade wars: Balancing sovereignty and global commerce. Social Sciences & Humanities Open, 12, 101945. <https://doi.org/10.1016/j.ssaho.2025.101945>

Analyzes arbitration's role as an adaptable alternative to WTO dispute settlement in trade wars, highlighting sovereignty tensions, enforcement challenges, and hybrid reform proposals.

4. Alhasan, T. K. (2025). Linguistic competence in arbitration: A foundation for equity and efficiency. Journal of Legal Affairs and Dispute Resolution in Engineering and Construction (advance online publication). <https://doi.org/10.1061/JLADAH.LADR-1328>

Examines how multilingual proficiency, standardized language protocols, and AI-assisted translation under strict human oversight fortify due process and procedural efficiency in international arbitration.

5. Alhasan, T. K. (2025). Integrating AI into arbitration: Balancing efficiency with fairness and legal compliance. Conflict Resolution Quarterly, 42(4), 523–534. <https://doi.org/10.1002/crq.21470>
Examines how AI can streamline arbitral proceedings while safeguarding transparency, accountability, and due process.
6. Alhasan, T. K. (2025). Whether Delegation or Assistance: Clarifying the Role of Tribunal Secretaries in ICC Arbitration. Journal of Legal Affairs and Dispute Resolution in Engineering and Construction, 17(4). <https://doi.org/10.1061/JLADAH.LADR-1375>
Analyzes the Belgian Emek Insaat ruling to define permissible tasks for tribunal secretaries under arbitrator supervision.
7. Alhasan, T. K. (2025). Linguistic proficiency disclosures in international arbitration: Enhancing fairness and efficiency. International Journal for the Semiotics of Law, 38(5), 1805–1827. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s11196-025-10261-4>
Argues for mandatory language-disclosure rules to prevent fairness gaps in multilingual arbitrations.
8. Alhasan, T. K., & Burr, A. (2025). Beyond Words: Ensuring Due Process in Multilingual Arbitrations. International Journal for the Semiotics of Law, 38, 2219-2241. <https://doi.org/10.1007/s11196-025-10278-9>
Analyzes linguistic due process as essential to arbitral justice, highlighting translation gaps and urging reforms under Article V(1)(b) New York Convention.
9. Alhasan, T. K. (2025). From pathology to precision: Transforming multi-tiered dispute resolution clauses in international contracts. Conflict Resolution Quarterly, 42(4), 557–563. <https://doi.org/10.1002/crq.21473>
Proposes clarity and enforceability enhancements for multi-tiered clauses in cross-border agreements.
10. Alhasan, T. K. (2024). The devil is in the details: An analysis of the criteria for adequate reasoning in arbitral awards in Jordan. Conflict Resolution Quarterly, 41(3), 357–361. <https://doi.org/10.1002/crq.21412>
Reports on a landmark Jordanian court decision underscoring the necessity of clear, reasoned awards.

11. Tarawneh, M. A., & Alhasan, T. K. (2024). Justice in the balance: The crucial role of disclosure in ensuring justice in Jordanian arbitration. Conflict Resolution Quarterly, 42(1), 5–14. <https://doi.org/10.1002/crq.21427>

Highlights how nondisclosure by arbitrators can jeopardize impartiality and recommend harmonization with international norms.

12. Alhasan, T. K., & Al-Hawamdeh, A. M. (2024). Multi-tiered dispute resolution clauses in engineering contracts: A Jordanian legal perspective. Conflict Resolution Quarterly, 41(3), 299–317. <https://doi.org/10.1002/crq.21407>

Examines binding nature and procedural implications of DR clauses under Jordanian law, suggesting legislative reform.

13. Alqhaiwi, J., Rayyan, I., & Alhasan, T. (2024). The Multi-Tiered Dispute Resolution Clause and its Applications in Jordan. Dirasat: Shari'a and Law Sciences, 51(1), 41–51. <https://doi.org/10.35516/law.v51i1.3168> (In Arabic)

Reviews real-world sectoral uses of DR ladders and their enforceability challenges.

14. Tarawneh, M. A., & Alhasan, T. K. (2024). Between commitment and reality: A critical examination of Jordan's adherence to the New York Convention 1958. Conflict Resolution Quarterly, 41(4), 491–506. <https://doi.org/10.1002/crq.21419>

Critiques Jordan's dual-track enforcement system and identifies barriers to seamless award recognition.

B. Procedural Law:

1. Awaisheh, S. M., Al-Dabbas, N. A., Alhasan, T. K., Odeibat, M., & Kurdi, A. A. (2024). The dichotomy of interests: A comparative analysis of civil and administrative lawsuits in the Jordanian legal system. International Journal of Criminal Justice Sciences, 19(1), 135–151. <https://doi.org/10.5281/zenodo.19108>

Maps the structural and procedural contrasts between Jordan's civil and administrative courts and pinpoints reform priorities.

2. Awaisheh, S. M., Alhasan, T. K., & Mansour, A. (2024). The Status of Digital Evidence in Administrative Litigation. Al-Balqa Journal for Research and Studies, 27(3), 42-55.
<https://doi.org/10.35875/pgdx2798> (In Arabic)

Evaluates the admissibility and weight of digital evidence, recommending statutory amendments to strengthen evidentiary standards.

C. Intellectual Property:

1. Alqhaiwi, J. M. J., Rayyan, I. F. A., Alhasan, T. K. A., & Almajali, T. A. T. (2023). The Effectiveness of Compulsory Licensing in Accessing Vaccines COVID-19 Case Study". Kurdish Studies, 11 (2), 365-382.
<https://doi.org/10.58262/ks.v11i02.027>

Assesses how compulsory licensing accelerates vaccine availability in public-health emergencies and outlines policy lessons for future pandemics.

2. Qtaishat, A., Alhasan, T. K., & Al-Amin, K. (2025). Legal Alchemy: Transforming Stem Cell Innovations into Patents Amid Constraints. International Journal of Intellectual Property Management (accepted for publication).

Analyzes patentability of stem cell technologies in Jordan, addressing TRIPS obligations, Islamic law restrictions, and proposing reforms to reconcile innovation with ethical constraints.

D. Civil Law:

1. Al-Hawamdeh M. & Alhasan, T. K. (2024) Smart Robots and Civil Liability in Jordan: A Quest for Legal Synthesis in The Age of Automation, Jordanian Journal of Law and Political Science, 16(2), 48-62.
<https://doi.org/10.35682/jjllps.v16i2.743>

Explores liability gaps created by autonomous robots and suggests a hybrid fault-based / strict-liability regime tailored to emerging technologies.

2. Al-Ali, Iman Abdel-Fattah, Al-Awaishea, Saddam Mohammed Aboudi, and Al-Hasan, Tariq Kamal. (2023). The Impact of Term Theory on Administrative Contracts: BOT and FIDIC Contracts as Models. Journal of Legal and Political Sciences, 13(2), 153-192. (In Arabic)
